- We will get to experience the Blyde River Canyon, which is a 26km long Canyon located in Mpumalanga, South Africa. It is the third-largest canyon on Earth, behind the Grand Canyon and the Fish River Canyon. Unlike the Grand and Fish River Canyon, the Blyde River Canyon is a green canyon which is dominated by subtropical vegetation.
- God's Window will be also another stop for a picturesque viewpoint. Uniquely located North of Graskop, while standing at this viewpoint you get a beautiful view of the panoramic lowveld. You will be able to view the magnificent Blyde River Canyon.
- The Berlin Falls are a waterfall in Mpumalanga, South Africa. They are located close to God's Window and are the highest waterfall in South Africa's Mpumalanga province.
- Bourke's Luck Potholes will also be amongst the best of Mpumalanga attractions as a popular geological attraction formed by water erosion, with walkways & bridges that take one's breath away.
- Three Rondavels is also amongst the offerings. There are Three Rondavels which are three round mountain tops with slightly pointed tops, remarkably like the traditional round or oval African homesteads made with local materials and are called rondavels. Once known as the chief and his three wives - the flat-topped peak represented Mapjaneng, famous for opposing invading Swazis in a memorable battle, whilst the rondavels are three of his more troublesome wives - Magabolle, Mogoladikwe, and Maseroto
