Paul Kruger House Museum – Pretoria

Discover the former home of Boer President Paul Kruger, where you'll explore exhibits showcasing the lifestyle of the late 19th-century Afrikaner elite. This brief visit offers insight into South Africa's complex political history during the Boer era.

Church Square – Pretoria

A quick stop at Pretoria's historical heart, Church Square, where the famous Rivonia Trial took place. Learn about the anti-apartheid resistance and the pivotal role this location played in South Africa's journey to liberation.

Union Buildings – Pretoria

Marvel at the Union Buildings, the seat of South Africa's government. These magnificent structures symbolize the unity of the nation and offer breathtaking views and a deeper understanding of South Africa's political landscape.

Apartheid Museum – Johannesburg

The emotional highlight of the day, the Apartheid Museum, confronts the harsh realities of apartheid with powerful exhibits and personal stories. This two-hour exploration is a sobering reminder of the country's painful history and the triumph of its resilient people.

Constitution Hill (Optional) – Johannesburg

Explore the former prison complex at Constitution Hill, now a symbol of South Africa's commitment to human rights and justice. Optional stop to witness the transformation from a symbol of oppression to a beacon of hope.
